FMI VISION AWARDS

SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

fmi.arizona.edu/vision-awards-sponsorship

ABOUT FMI AND THE VISION AWARDS

The Frances McClelland Institute for Children, Youth, and Families (FMI) at The University of Arizona works collaboratively to use the power of research to build family resilience and improve lives. We partner to put our research into the hands of families and practitioners who serve families, and we train the next generation of scholars and leaders.

The Vision Awards celebrate the legacy of Frances McClelland, who was a generous and tireless advocate for children, youth, and families, especially those experiencing adversity and injustice. These annual awards honor esteemed and emerging leaders in our community.

YOUR IMPACT

Your generous sponsorship of the Vision Awards will help recognize unsung heroes of Southern Arizona at this free community event. You will contribute to our mission to build strong communities that provide opportunities for children, youth and families to thrive.

SPOTLIGHTS | PAST FMI VISION AWARD WINNERS

THE COMMUNITY COALITION FOR HEART HEALTH EDUCATION

SPIRIT ORGANIZATIONAL AWARDEE 2023

For fourteen years, the Sarver Heart Center's Minority Outreach Committee (CCHHE) has promoted heart health in underserved communities. They've reached 7,500 individuals, given 89 presentations, and invested 600,200 volunteer hours. Additionally, they've funded four research awards and established an endowment for women of color in Tucson. Committed to community engagement, they aim to empower minorities through health education, enhancing their quality of life.

LILIAN GERMAN NORIEGA

YOUTH VISION AWARDEE 2023

Growing up, Lilian learned resilience from her parents' pursuit of the American Dream. A high-achieving student, she is an engaged volunteer who is committed to using her education to positively impact her community. Throughout her educational journey, Lilian received support from a network of educators, donors, and community members, fueling her passion for learning and propelling her towards her collegiate dreams. As a first-generation Latina, she recognizes the significance of her educational pursuits and remains deeply grateful for the opportunities afforded to her.

NOMINATE A LEADER IN YOUR COMMUNITY TODAY

Deadline to Nominate: August 5, 2024

The Frances McClelland Vision Award honors a community leader who has made a lifelong commitment and significant contributions to the well-being of children, youth, and families. The community leader embodies the strength, dedication, vision, and passion that Frances McClelland exhibited throughout her life. This award is for a community leader who has dedicated their life and work to helping Frances McClelland's legacy and vision come to fruition for the people of Southern Arizona and the world. The community leader should have at least 15 years of established commitment to improving the lives of children, youth, and families in Southern Arizona and the world.

The Richard Elías Legacy Award honors an individual who works with the Southern Arizona community to build resilience, work for justice, and honor the beauty and heritage of our community and its members. As a champion of our unique Sonoran desert and its people, this individual exemplifies many of the admirable qualities of Richard Elías: a person who is dedicated and willing to take risks, who is approachable and open to everyone in the community, and who promotes equity and opportunity. In line with his work, we particularly encourage nominations of DACA recipients for this award.

The Frances McClelland Youth Vision Award honors a youth leader or group of youth leaders who are working towards improving the well-being of children, youth, families, and communities. The youth embody the strength, dedication, vision, and passion that Frances McClelland exhibited throughout her life and youth. This award is for a youth leader or a group of leaders who inspire hope for Arizona's future. We are looking for youth that embody Frances' spirit of valuing her immigrant roots, overcoming adversity, and demonstrating resilience in the face of challenges. This candidate would be interested in future careers in family, health, criminal justice, psychology, social work, healthcare, teaching, and other related fields. The youth leader or group of leaders should be between 11-22 years old.

The Frances McClelland Spirit Organizational Award honors a local organization that embodies the spirit, resilience, and legacy of Frances Helen McClelland. The nonprofit community organization 1) embodies Frances McClelland's spirit, resilience, and legacy, 2) supports and promotes community or family resiliency, 3) serves the community by offering support that addresses our community's needs, such as basic needs, psychological needs, and emotional well-being, 4) serves our most vulnerable community members, and 5) serves our community across the life span, from birth to old age.
