ABOUT FMI AND THE VISION AWARDS

The Frances McClelland Institute for Children, Youth, and Families (FMI) at The University of Arizona works collaboratively to use the power of research to build family resilience and improve lives. We partner to put our research into the hands of families and practitioners who serve families, and we train the next generation of scholars and leaders.

The Vision Awards celebrate the legacy of Frances McClelland, who was a generous and tireless advocate for children, youth, and families, especially those experiencing adversity and injustice. These annual awards honor esteemed and emerging leaders in our community.

YOUR IMPACT

Your generous sponsorship of the Vision Awards will help recognize unsung heroes of Southern Arizona. You will contribute to our mission to build strong communities that provide opportunities for children, youth and families to thrive.

SPOTLIGHTS | FMI VISION AWARD WINNERS

DR. PATRICIA HARRISON-MONROE
FRANCES MCCLELLAND VISION Awardee 2020

Dr. Patricia Harrison-Monroe is a leader, mentor, advocate, and bridge-builder for equitable, innovative, and comprehensive services - particularly for youth struggling with serious mental illness. She is a clinician and educator with a 20-year track record of making seminal contributions to improving access to - and quality of - mental health services for youth, adults, and families in Southern Arizona and beyond. Her visionary leadership led to the development of the Banner-University Medicine Whole Health Clinic and the Early Psychosis Intervention Center (EPICenter).

HURSHNEET & PRAVNEET CHADHA
FRANCES MCCLELLAND YOUTH VISION Awardees 2021

Since the start of the pandemic, brothers Hurshneet and Pravneet Chadha, founders of Project Smile AZ, have dedicated themselves to spreading kindness. The project began as a way to show support and compassion to hospitalized COVID patients, but it soon spread globally, inspiring change across the world. Volunteers made handmade cards, or “Smile Kits”, for veterans, people experiencing homelessness, cancer patients and essential workers. The Chadha brothers have helped thousands, committing to their project motto: “We can all do something with what we have to make this world better!”

Thank you for supporting the Vision Awards and helping us recognize some of the unsung heroes in Southern Arizona!
The Frances McClelland Vision Award is given to honor a community leader who has made a lifelong commitment and significant contributions to the well-being of children, youth, and families. The community leader embodies the strength, dedication, vision, and passion that Frances McClelland exhibited throughout her life. This award is for a community leader who has dedicated their life and work to helping Frances McClelland's legacy and vision come to fruition for the people of Southern Arizona and the world. The community leader should have at least 15 years of established commitment to improving the lives of children, youth, and families in Southern Arizona and the world.

The Richard Elías Legacy Award is given to honor an individual who works with the Southern Arizona community to build resilience, work for justice, and honor the beauty and heritage of our community and its members. As a champion of our unique Sonoran desert and its people, this individual exemplifies many of the admirable qualities of Richard Elías: a person who is dedicated and willing to take risks, who is approachable and open to everyone in the community, and who promotes equity and opportunity. Nominations of DACA recipients are encouraged.

The Frances McClelland Youth Vision Award is given to honor a youth leader or group of youth leaders who are working towards improving the well-being of children, youth, families, and communities. The youth embody the strength, dedication, vision, and passion that Frances McClelland exhibited throughout her life and youth. This award is for a youth leader or a group of leaders who inspire hope for Arizona's future. We are looking for youth that embody Frances' spirit of valuing her immigrant roots, overcoming adversity, and demonstrating resilience in the face of challenges. This candidate would be interested in future careers in family, health, criminal justice, psychology, social work, healthcare, teaching, and other related fields. The youth leader or group of leaders should be between 11-22 years old.

The Frances McClelland Spirit Organizational Award is given to a local organization that embodies the spirit, resilience, and legacy of Frances Helen McClelland. We are currently looking for a 501(c)3 nonprofit community organization that 1) Embody Frances McClelland's Spirit, Resilience, and Legacy, 2) Supports and promotes community or family resiliency, 3) Serves the community by offering support that addresses our community's needs, such as basic needs, psychological needs, and emotional well-being, 4) Serves our most vulnerable community members, 5) Serves our community across the life span, meaning from birth to old age.
